

IO2.2. Best practices on zoonoses interventions

Type of practice	Erasmus + project
Best practice title	"Animal Integration in the Educational Program" – ZORO
Period of implementation	2015 – 2017
Location	The project includes 10 different organizations from 8 different European countries: SLOVENIA,GREECE, TURKEY, CROATIA, HUNGARY, POLAND, IRELAND, ROMANIA
Geographical coverage	International
Contacts	Project coordinator: Ljudskauniverza, Zavodzaizobraževanje in kulturo, RogaškaSlatina, RogaškaSlatina, SLOVENIA , info@lu-rogaska.si
Link	http://www.animalintegrationintheeducationalprogramme.eu/2016/01/
Target audience	Children and teachers
Objectives	The main aim of the project is to develop a program for teachers on how to integrate the use of animals into their classrooms.
Short description	Animal Integration in the Educational Programme with acronym ZORO is an international Erasmus + project, funded by the European Union. The main aim of the project is to develop a programme for teachers on how to integrate the use of animals into their classrooms. At the same time the project will involve various activities with animals for children and a special training for teachers in Ireland, where they will learn how to use animals in the educational programme in practice. The project includes 10 different organizations from 8 different European countries.
Activities	http://www.animalintegrationintheeducationalprogramme.eu/activities/
Products	1 output: Guideline about using Animal Assisted Therapy in classrooms http://www.animalintegrationintheeducationalprogramme.eu/projectdissemination/ http://www.animalintegrationintheeducationalprogramme.eu/download-your-manual/ http://www.animalintegrationintheeducationalprogramme.eu/literature-2/
Impact	http://www.animalintegrationintheeducationalprogramme.eu/impact-reports/
Key words	Children, teachers, integrate the use of animals,classrooms